NOTICE

In connection with your application for a home loan, the lender/broker must disclose to you the score that a consumer reporting agency (also known as a credit bureau) distributed to users and the lender/broker used in connection with your home loan, and the key factors affecting your credit scores. The credit score is a computer-generated summary calculated at the time of the request and based on information a consumer reporting agency or lender/broker has on file. The scores are based on the data about your credit history and payment patterns. Credit scores are important because they are used to assist the lender/broker in determining whether you will obtain a loan. They may also be used to determine what interest rate you may be offered on the mortgage. Credit scores can change over time, depending on your conduct, how your credit history and payment patterns change and how credit scoring technologies change. Because the score is based on information in your credit history, it is very important that you review the credit-related information that is being furnished to make sure that it is accurate. Credit records may vary from one company to another. If you have questions about your credit score or the credit information that is furnished to you, contact the consumer reporting agency at the address and telephone number provided with this notice, or contact the lender/broker, if the lender/broker developed or generated the credit score. The consumer-reporting agency plays no part in the decision on a loan application. If you have any questions concerning the terms of the loan, contact the lender/broker.

RESPA SERVICING DISCLOSURE

Lender: TRACO MORTGAGE (Division of TRACO FINANCIAL CORPORATION)

NOTICE TO FIRST LIEN MORTGAGE LOAN APPLICANTS: THE RIGHT TO COLLECT YOUR MORTGAGE LOAN PAYMENTS MAY BE TRANSFERRED; FEDERAL LAW GIVES YOU CERTAIN RELATED RIGHTS. IF YOUR LOAN IS MADE, SAVE THIS STATEMENT WITH YOUR LOAN DOCUMENTS. SIGN THE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AT THE END OF THIS STATEMENT ONLY IF YOU UNDERSTAND ITS CONTENTS

Because you are applying for a mortgage loan covered by the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act. (RESPA) (12 U.S.C. Section 2601 et seq.) you have certain rights under that Federal law.

This statement tells you about those rights. It also tells you what the chances are that the servicing for this loan maybe transferred to a different loan servicer. "Servicing" refers to collecting your principal, interest and escrow account payments, if any, If your loan services changes, there are certain procedures that must be followed. This statement generally explains those procedures.

If the servicing of your loan is assigned, sold, or transferred to a new servicer, you must be given written notice of that transfer. The present loan servicer must send you notice in writing of the assignment, sale or transfer of the servicing not less than 15 days before, the effective date of the transfer. The new loan servicer must also send you notice within 15 days after the effective date of the transfer. The present servicer and the new servicer may combine this information on one notice, so long as the notice is sent to you 15 days before the effective date of transfer. The 15 day period is not applicable if a notice of prospective transfer is provided to you at settlement. The law allows a delay in the time (not more that 30 days after a transfer for servicers to notify you, upon the occurrence of certain business emergencies.

Notices must contain certain information. They must contain the effective date of the transfer of the servicing of your loan to the new servicer, and the name, address and toll-free or collect call telephone number of the new servicer, and toll-free or collect call telephone numbers of a person or department for both your present servicer and your new servicer to answer your questions, During the 60 day period following the effective date of the transfer of the loan servicing, a loan payment received by your old servicer before its due date may not be treated by the new loan servicer as late, and a late fee may not be imposed on you.

Complaint Resolution

Section 6 of RESPA (12 S.S.C. Section 2605) gives you certain consumer rights, whether or not your loan servicing is transferred. If you send a "qualified written request" to your servicer, your servicer must provide you with a written acknowledgement within 20 Business Days of receipt of your request. A "qualified written request" is a written correspondence, other than notice on a payment coupon or other payment medium supplied by the servicer, which includes your name and account number, and the information regarding your request. Not later than 60 Business Days after receiving your request, your servicer must make any appropriate corrections to your account, or must provide you with a written clarification regarding any dispute. During this 60-Business Day period, your servicer may not provide information to a consumer reporting agency concerning any overdue payment related to such period or qualified written request.

A Business Day is any day in which the offices of the business entity are open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its business functions.

Damages and Costs

Section 6 of RESPA also provides for damages and costs for individuals or classes of individual in circumstances where services are shown to have violated the requirement of that Section.

Opt Out Form

Did you know that every time you have your credit pulled the credit bureaus alert all the companies in their database that it has been pulled. The bureaus then give these companies the name and address of the person whose credit has been pulled. This all happens within 10 minutes of your credit being pulled. The credit bureaus do this because their clients pay them for this information. Yes, this is legal, and yes it absolutely happens, and no they do not need your permission to do this.

You can "opt out" of this invasion of your privacy and thus stop your information from being sent to these databases.

Please sign into www.optoutprescreen.com.

This site "opts out" you from the harassing calls trying to sell you something. This is a FREE service for Traco Mortgage Clients.

NOTICE

In connection with your application for a home loan, the lender/broker must disclose to you the score that a consumer reporting agency (also known as a credit bureau) distributed to users and the lender/broker used in connection with your home loan, and the key factors affecting your credit scores. The credit score is a computer-generated summary calculated at the time of the request and based on information a consumer reporting agency or lender/broker has on file. The scores are based on the data about your credit history and payment patterns. Credit scores are important because they are used to assist the lender/broker in determining whether you will obtain a loan. They may also be used to determine what interest rate you may be offered on the mortgage. Credit scores can change over time, depending on your conduct, how your credit history and payment patterns change and how credit scoring technologies change. Because the score is based on information in your credit history, it is very important that you review the credit-related information that is being furnished to make sure that it is accurate. Credit records may vary from one company to another. If you have questions about your credit score or the credit information that is furnished to you, contact the consumer reporting agency at the address and telephone number provided with this notice, or contact the lender/broker, if the lender/broker developed or generated the credit score. The consumer-reporting agency plays no part in the decision on a loan application. If you have any questions concerning the terms of the loan, contact the lender/broker.

RESPA SERVICING DISCLOSURE

Lender: TRACO MORTGAGE (Division of TRACO FINANCIAL CORPORATION)

NOTICE TO FIRST LIEN MORTGAGE LOAN APPLICANTS: THE RIGHT TO COLLECT YOUR MORTGAGE LOAN PAYMENTS MAY BE TRANSFERRED; FEDERAL LAW GIVES YOU CERTAIN RELATED RIGHTS. IF YOUR LOAN IS MADE, SAVE THIS STATEMENT WITH YOUR LOAN DOCUMENTS. SIGN THE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AT THE END OF THIS STATEMENT ONLY IF YOU UNDERSTAND ITS CONTENTS

Because you are applying for a mortgage loan covered by the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act. (RESPA) (12 U.S.C. Section 2601 et seq.) you have certain rights under that Federal law.

This statement tells you about those rights. It also tells you what the chances are that the servicing for this loan maybe transferred to a different loan servicer. "Servicing" refers to collecting your principal, interest and escrow account payments, if any. If your loan services changes, there are certain procedures that must be followed. This statement generally explains those procedures.

If the servicing of your loan is assigned, sold, or transferred to a new servicer, you must be given written notice of that transfer. The present loan servicer must send you notice in writing of the assignment, sale or transfer of the servicing not less than 15 days before, the effective date of the transfer. The new loan servicer must also send you notice within 15 days after the effective date of the transfer. The present servicer and the new servicer may combine this information on one notice, so long as the notice is sent to you 15 days before the effective date of transfer. The 15 day period is not applicable if a notice of prospective transfer is provided to you at settlement. The law allows a delay in the time (not more than 30 days after a transfer for servicers to notify you, upon the occurrence of certain business emergencies.

Notices must contain certain information. They must contain the effective date of the transfer of the servicing of your loan to the new servicer, and the name, address and toll-free or collect call telephone number of the new servicer, and toll-free or collect call telephone numbers of a person or department for both your present servicer and your new servicer to answer your questions. During the 60 day period following the effective date of the transfer of the loan servicing, a loan payment received by your old servicer before its due date may not be treated by the new loan servicer as late, and a late fee may not be imposed on you.

Complaint Resolution

Section 6 of RESPA (12 S.S.C. Section 2605) gives you certain consumer rights, whether or not your loan servicing is transferred. If you send a "qualified written request" to your servicer your servicer must provide you with a written acknowledgment within 20 Business Days of receipt of your request. A qualified written request is a written correspondence, other than notice on a payment coupon or other payment medium supplied by the servicer, which includes your name and account number, and the information regarding your request. Not later than 60 Business Days after receiving your request, your servicer must make any appropriate corrections to your account, or must provide you with a written clarification regarding any dispute. During this 60-Business Day period, your servicer may not provide information to a consumer reporting agency concerning any overdue payment related to such period or qualified written request.

A Business Day is any day in which the offices of the business entity are open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its business functions.

Damages and Costs

Section 6 of RESPA also provides for damages and costs for individuals or classes of individual in circumstances where services are shown to have violated the requirement of that Section.
